PLEASE TURN CELL PHONES OFF TO PREPARE YOUR HEART AND MIND FOR WORSHIP

WELCOME to God's House! We are happy that you are with us to Worship God together.

Lutheran Church of Our Savior is a congregation with a big heart. We all know how difficult it is to be new, but we want you to know that no matter who you are or where you find yourself in life, you are invited to join us for worship and fellowship. Come to hear God's Word, share in the Sacraments and discover new ways to reach out to the world with God's peace and grace.

Everyone is a child of God. From crying babies to enthusiastic seniors, we recognize that we are all called to be one body with many members. We welcome people of all races, ethnicities, of every marital status, political affiliation, sexual orientation and gender identity or expression. Those of different faith traditions, different physical, mental and emotional abilities and those in recovery or struggling with addiction are always welcome. We are committed to embracing the work of anti-racism, social and economic justice, and environmental care. We sincerely hope you join us in our journey toward greater love, understanding, and mutual respect for each other.

The bottom line: We welcome you! We are grateful to the one, holy Triune God who blessed us with this church. We know that no matter who you are Jesus accepts you and so do we. May our prayers, the hearing of God's Word, and God's grace and love make our burdens lighter, our hearts encouraged, and our souls refreshed.

Let us pause before the service to turn our thoughts toward God in silent prayer and meditation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

GATHERING

The people rise as they are able.

WELCOME TO OUR ONLINE CONGREGATION

We are blessed to be joined each week with a faithful crew of digital worshippers. Let's take this time of gathering to offer them a warm hello!

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS FOR ADVENT

Children are invited to the front to help lead the confession and forgiveness for this season.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God,
Creator of the stars of night,
Companion at the dining table,
Breath over the deep waters.
Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Have mercy, O God,
against you, you alone,
we have sinned.
In your compassion,
cleanse us from our sin
and take away our guilt.
create in us a new heart
and give us a steadfast spirit.
Do not cast us away,
but fill us with your Holy Spirit and restore your joy within us.
Amen.

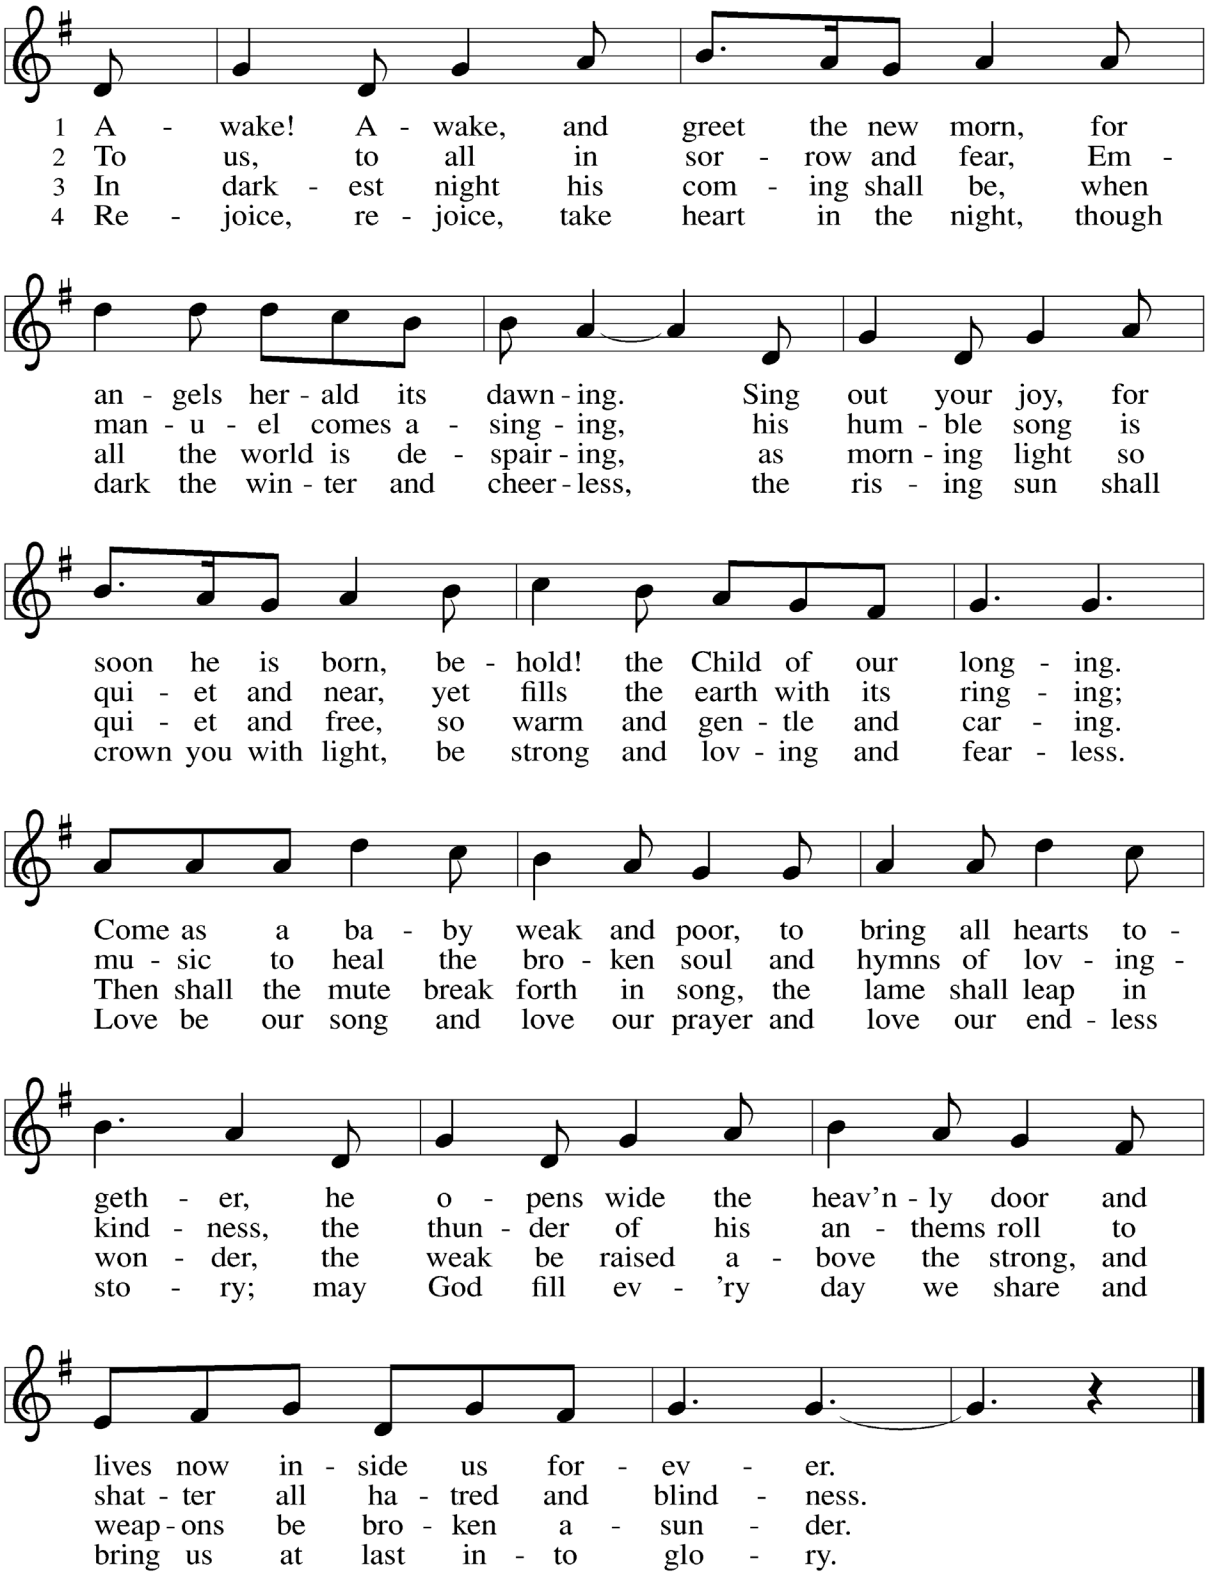

As tender as parent to child,
So deep is God's compassion for you.
Blessed be God forever.

As high as heaven is above earth,
So vast is God's love for you.
Blessed be God forever.

As far as east is from west,
So far God removes your sin from you,
Blessed be God forever.

Blessed be God who crowns us with mercy and love.
Blessed be God forever.

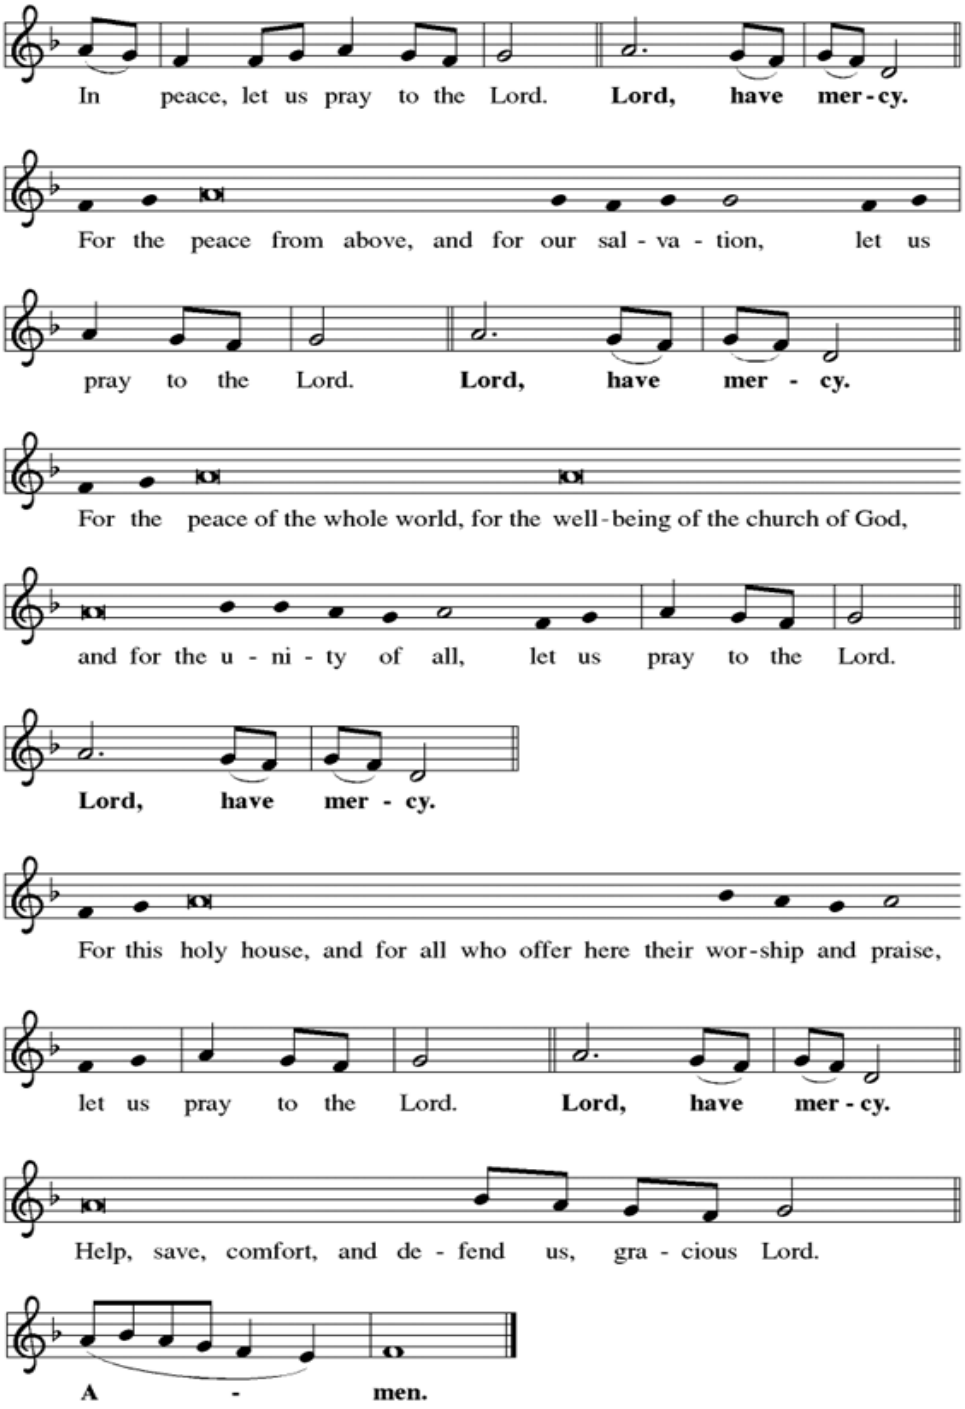

GATHERING HYMN
Awake! Awake, and Greet the New Morn (ELW #242)

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

KYRIE

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. By your merciful protection awaken us to the threatening dangers of our sins and keep us blameless until the coming of your new day, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Sunday School leaders and children are invited to come up to help light the Advent candle.

LIGHTING OF THE FIRST ADVENT CANDLE - HOPE

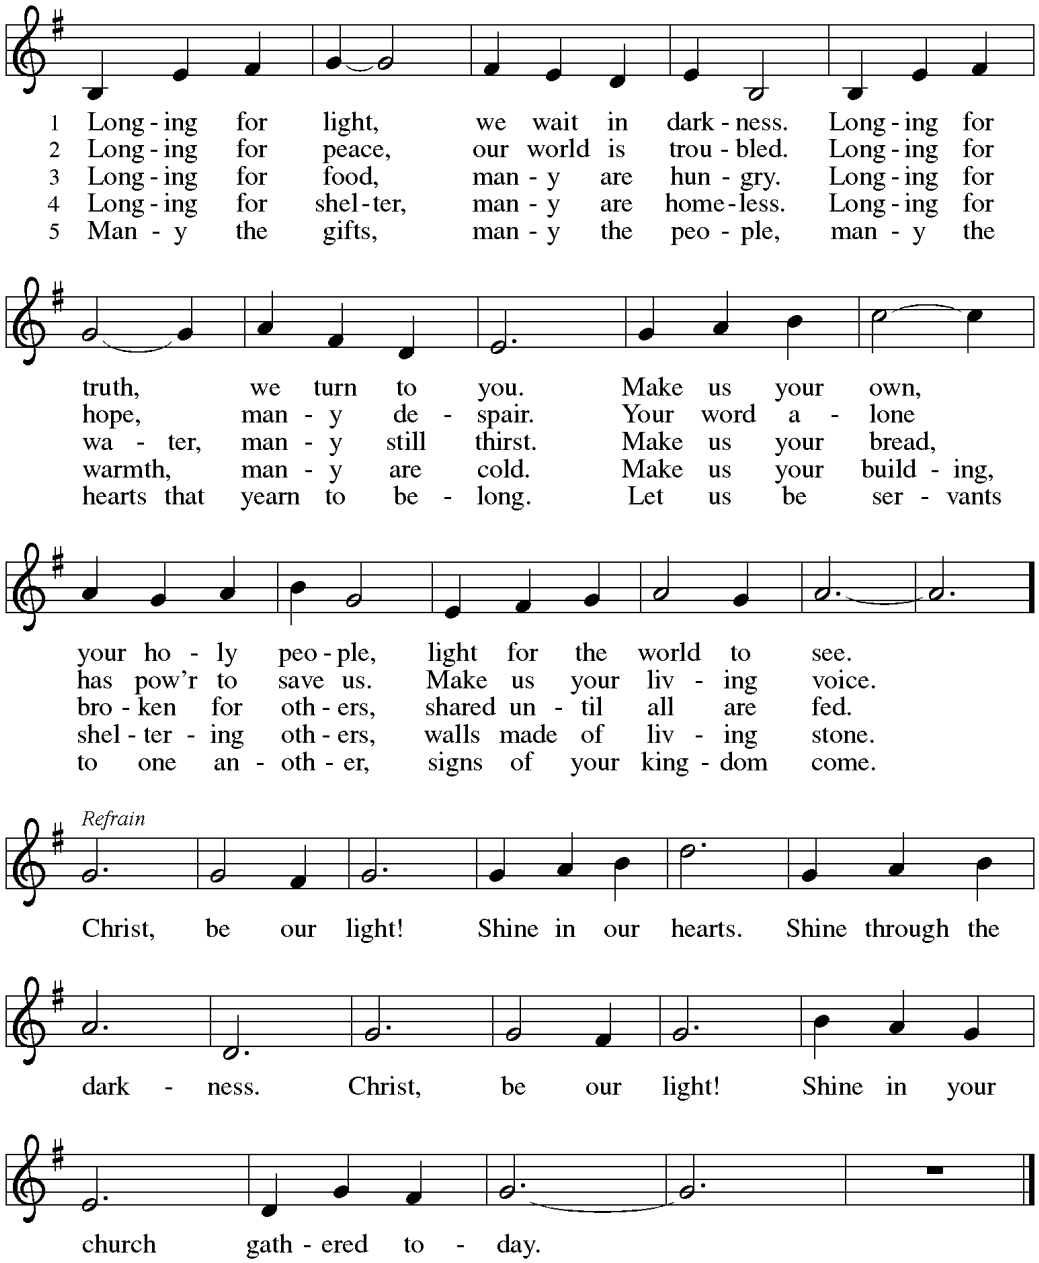

We praise you, O God, for this evergreen crown that marks our days of preparation for Christ's advent.

As we light the first candle on this wreath, rouse us from sleep, that we may be ready to greet our Lord when he comes with all the saints and angels.

Enlighten us with your grace, and prepare our hearts to welcome him with joy.

Grant this through Christ our Lord, whose coming is certain and whose day draws near.
O, people of hope, come,
let us rejoice in the faithfulness of the Lord. Amen.

ADVENT WREATH LIGHTING ANTHEM
Christ, Be Our Light (ELW #715 Verse 1)

Please be seated.

FIRST READING — Isaiah 64:1-9

This lament comes from a people who have had their hopes shattered. The visions of a rebuilt Jerusalem and a renewed people of God, spoken of in Isaiah 40–55, have not been realized. Instead, the people experience ruin, conflict, and famine. This lament calls God to account—to be the God who has brought deliverance in the past.

A reading from Isaiah.

[1] O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence—[2] as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil—to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence!
[3] When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect,
you came down; the mountains quaked at your presence.
[4] From ages past no one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who works for those who wait for him.
[5] You meet those who gladly do right,
those who remember you in your ways.
But you were angry, and we sinned;
because you hid yourself we transgressed.
[6] We have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth.
We all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.
[7] There is no one who calls on your name or attempts to take hold of you, for you have hidden your face from us
and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.
[8] Yet, O LORD, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
[9] Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD, and do not remember iniquity forever.
Now consider, we are all your people.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM — Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19

Psalm will be spoken during the Advent season. The verses printed in plain text will be spoken by the south side of congregation and the north side will respond in the verses in bold text.

Let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved. (Ps. 80:7)

1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph | like a flock;
shine forth, you that are enthroned up- | on the cherubim.
2 In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, | and Manasseh,
stir up your strength and | come to help us.
3 Restore | us, O God;
let your face shine upon us, and we | shall be saved.
4 O LORD | God of hosts,
how long will your anger fume when your | people pray?
5 You have fed them with the | bread of tears;
you have given them bowls of | tears to drink.
6 You have made us the derision | of our neighbors,
and our enemies laugh | us to scorn.
7 Restore us, O | God of hosts;
let your face shine upon us, and we | shall be saved.
17 Let your hand be upon the one at | your right hand,
the one you have made so strong | for yourself.
18 And so will we never turn a- | way from you;
give us life, that we may call up- | on your name.
19 Restore us, O LORD | God of hosts;
let your face shine upon us, and we | shall be saved.

SECOND READING — 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

As the Christians in Corinth await the advent of Jesus, Paul reminds them how the Lord has already enriched them through spiritual gifts and will continue to strengthen them until the coming day of the Lord.

A reading from 1 Corinthians.

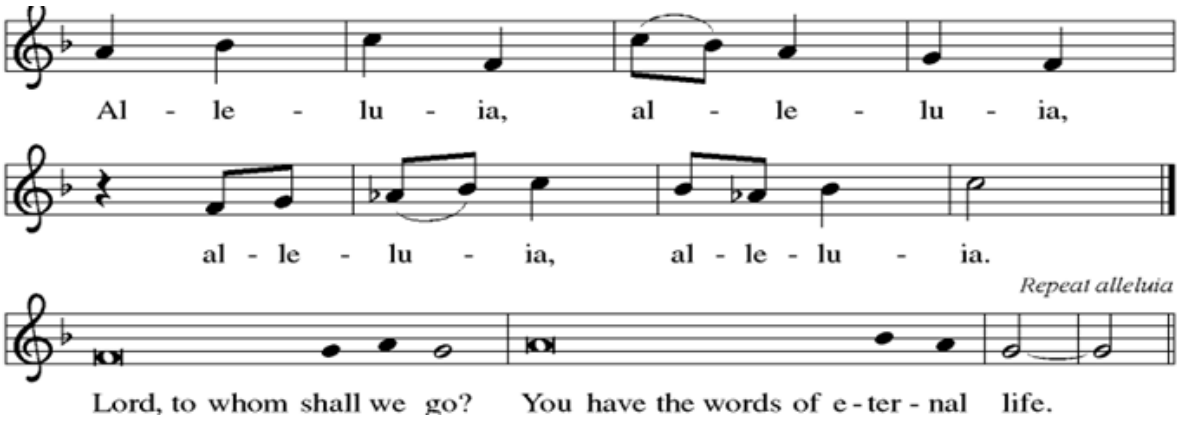

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, 5 for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—6 just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—7 so that you are not lacking in any gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8 He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called into the partnership of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The people rise as they are able.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL Mark 13:24-37

Jesus encourages his followers to look forward to the day when he returns in power and glory to end all suffering.

The holy gospel according to Mark the thirteenth chapter.
Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] 24 "In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light, 25 and the stars will be falling from heaven,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.
26 "Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. 27 Then he will send out the angels and gather the elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

28 "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. 30 Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

32 "But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven nor the Son, but only the Father. 33 Beware, keep alert, for you do not know when the time will come. 34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. 35 Therefore, keep awake, for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening or at midnight or at cockcrow or at dawn, 36 or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. 37 And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated.

CHILDREN'S SERMON

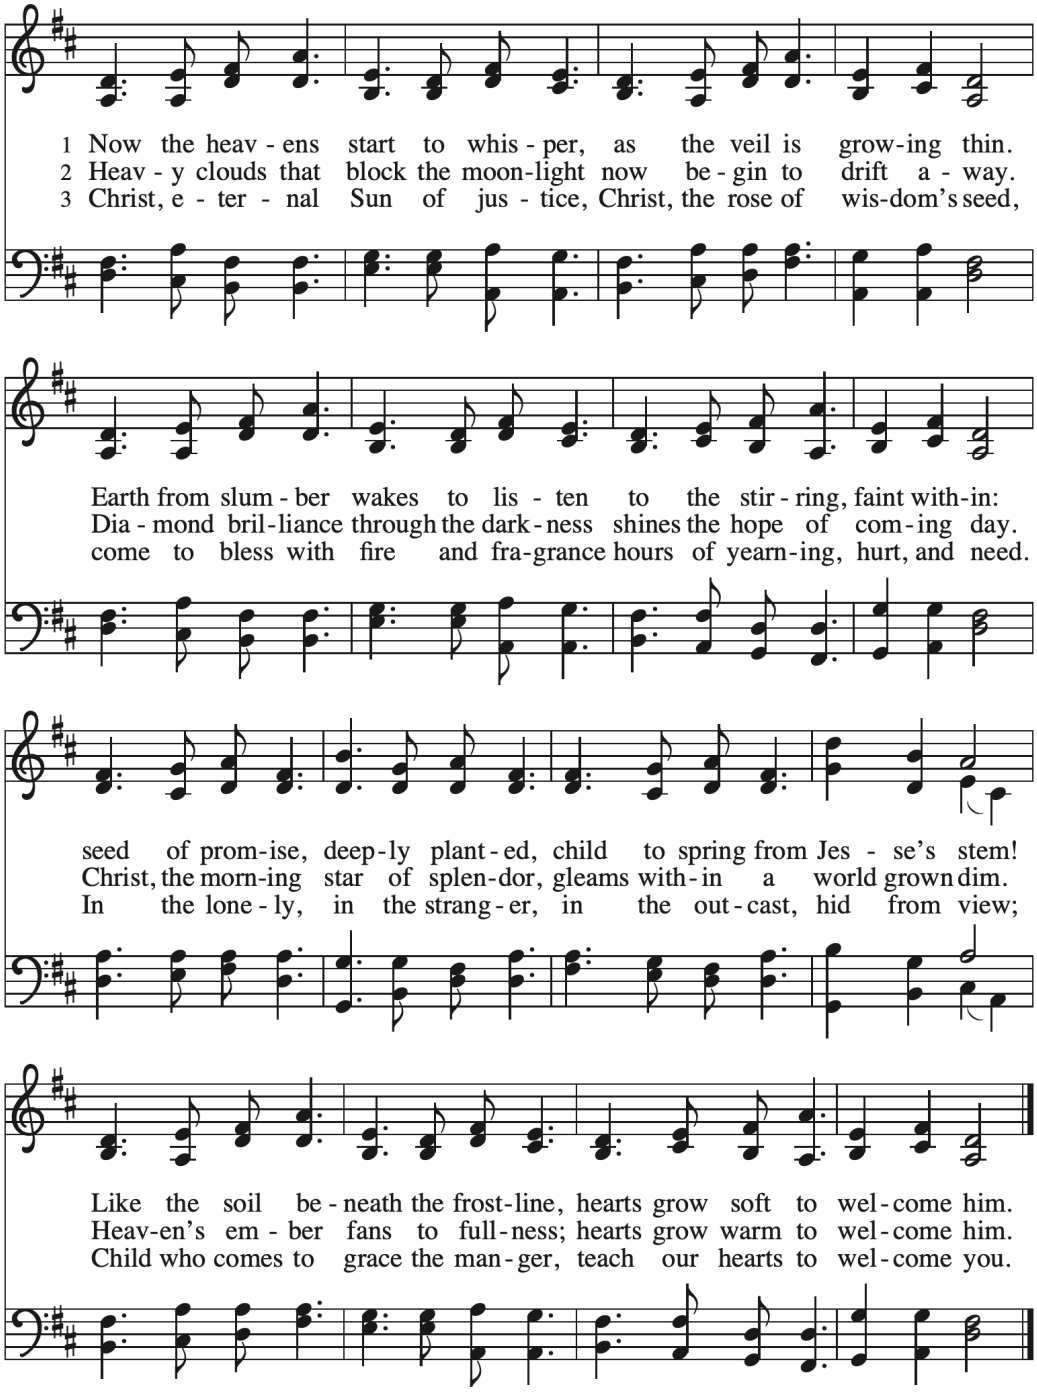

Following the children's sermon, little ones are invited to travel to the nursery to enjoy some holy play with our Sunday School teachers. They will return to receive communion with their families

SERMON

"From the end of the earth to the ends of heavens"

The people rise as they are able.

HYMN OF THE DAY — Now the Heavens Start to Whisper (ACS #901)

APOSTLES' CREED

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

In hope and expectation, we bring to God our prayers for the church, the world, and all in need.

A brief silence.

Strengthen your church in this season of anticipation. Nourish all people who gather around word and water, bread and cup. Reassure any whose faith feels dry that you are always near. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

Come and restore the earth. Give rest to weary lands and renewed life to species at risk. Make us wise stewards of the places we call home. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

Bring peace among all nations and communities. Embolden leaders to seek creative and sustainable resolutions to war and conflict. Show us new possibilities in places where peace has been elusive especially in Ukraine and Iran. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

Sustain all who are heavy with weariness, grief, illness, or worry. Comfort families who are estranged from one another and any who are separated from loved ones. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

Inspire liturgists, preachers, musicians, and all who lead our worship and prayer. May we be prepared as we await Christ's coming this Advent season. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

You embrace all the saints from the far reaches of the earth. We remember with care all who have died and now abide in their eternal home. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

We pray for those celebrating their birthdays this week, Rich Stewart and John Bachmore. God, in your mercy, receive our prayer.

We entrust these and the prayers of our hearts to you, most holy God, in the name of Christ Jesus our Savior. Amen.

PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.
And also with you.

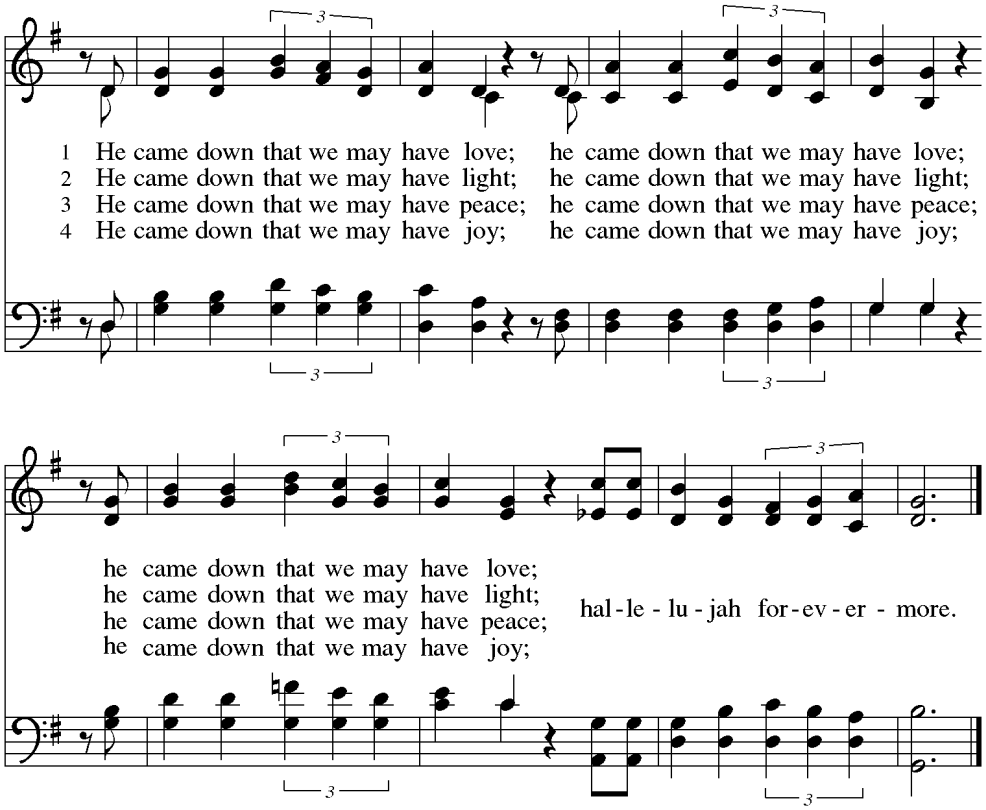

The people greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace.
Then the people are seated.

OFFERING

At this time, we encourage you to reflect on the gifts you have been given and how you can share them with others. If you are able to make a financial gift to LCOS, you can do so by scanning the QR Code Card in your pew, on our website or when the Ushers pass the Offering Plate. If you are able to give time, please speak with a council member or other leader about how you can contribute to the needs of the congregation and our community. Let us encourage one another to give generously whenever and wherever we are able, as a celebration of the abundance we have received.

The people rise as they are able.

OFFERING HYMN — He Came Down (ELW #253)

OFFERING PRAYER

Holy Creator,
we are the clay and you are the potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
Receive these gifts shape them and our lives for your purpose, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

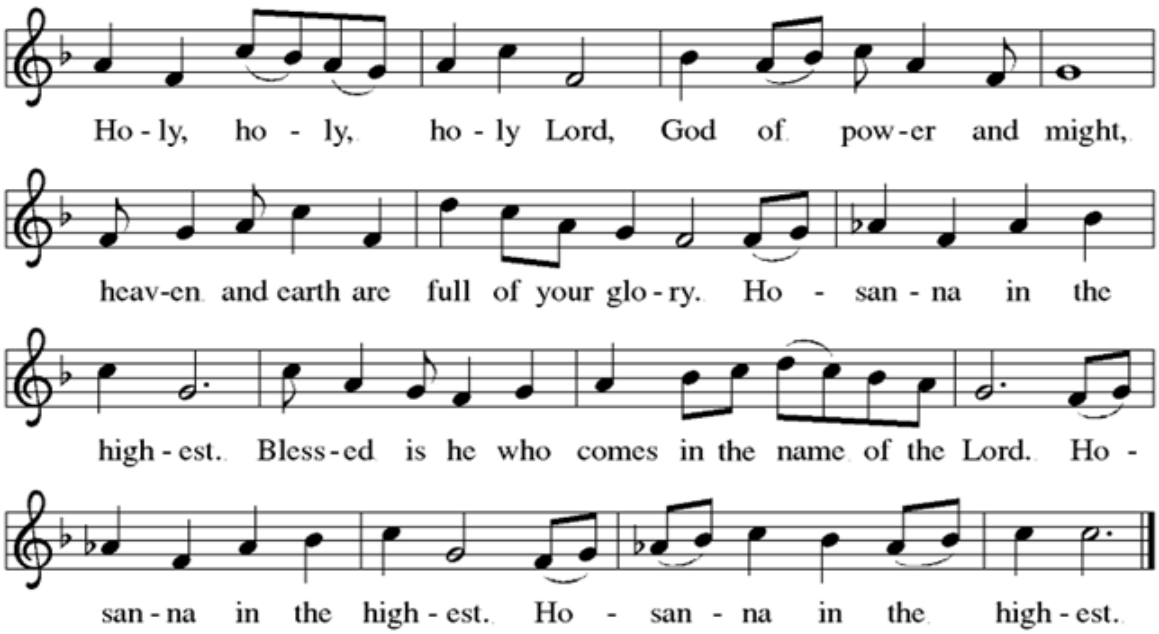

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.

You comforted your people with the promise of the Redeemer, through whom you will also make all things new in the day when he comes to judge the world in righteousness.

And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn

RESPONSE (Sanctus): Holy, Holy, Holy – ELW HC2

COMMUNION

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.
Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.
Blessed are you for your promise to your people.
Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.
Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.
Blessed are you for your Son Jesus,
the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

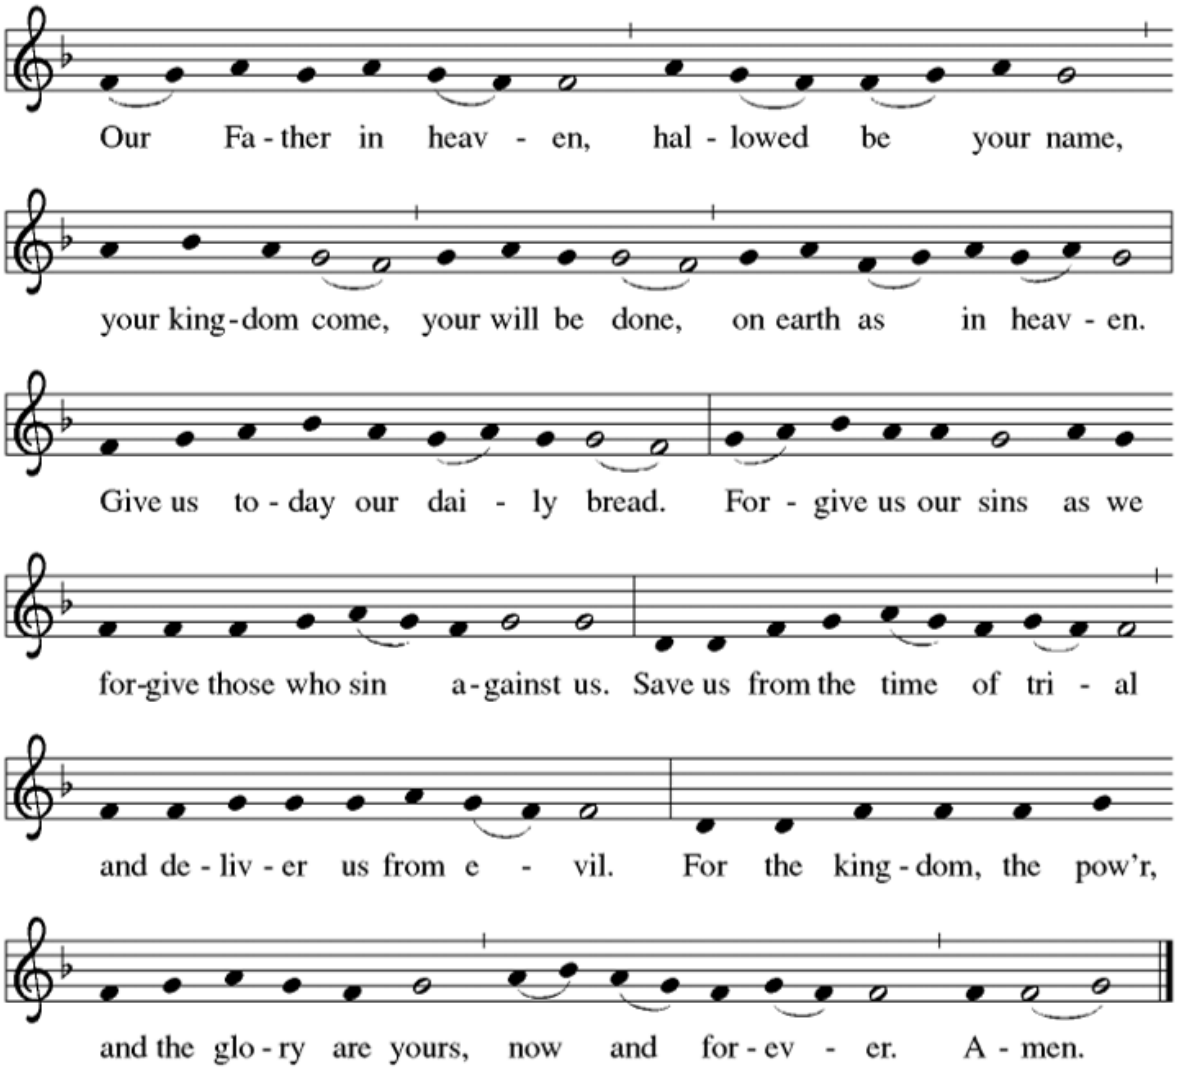

Holy God,
We long for your Spirit now.
Come among us.
Bless this meal.
May your Word take flesh in us.

Awaken your people.
Fill us with your light.
Bring the gift of peace on earth.

All praise and glory are yours,
Holy One of Israel,
Word of God incarnate,
Power of the Most High,
one God, now and forever.
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as our Lord has taught us:

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

We invite everyone viewing this service on zoom from home to join in a prayer of Spiritual Communion.

In union with your faithful people at Holy Communion, O God, we praise and thank you. We remember your death; proclaim your resurrection and we await your coming in glory. Come into our hearts. Empower us with your grace and let us never be separated in this life or the life to come. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The glory of the Lord is revealed!
Come and taste God's presence.

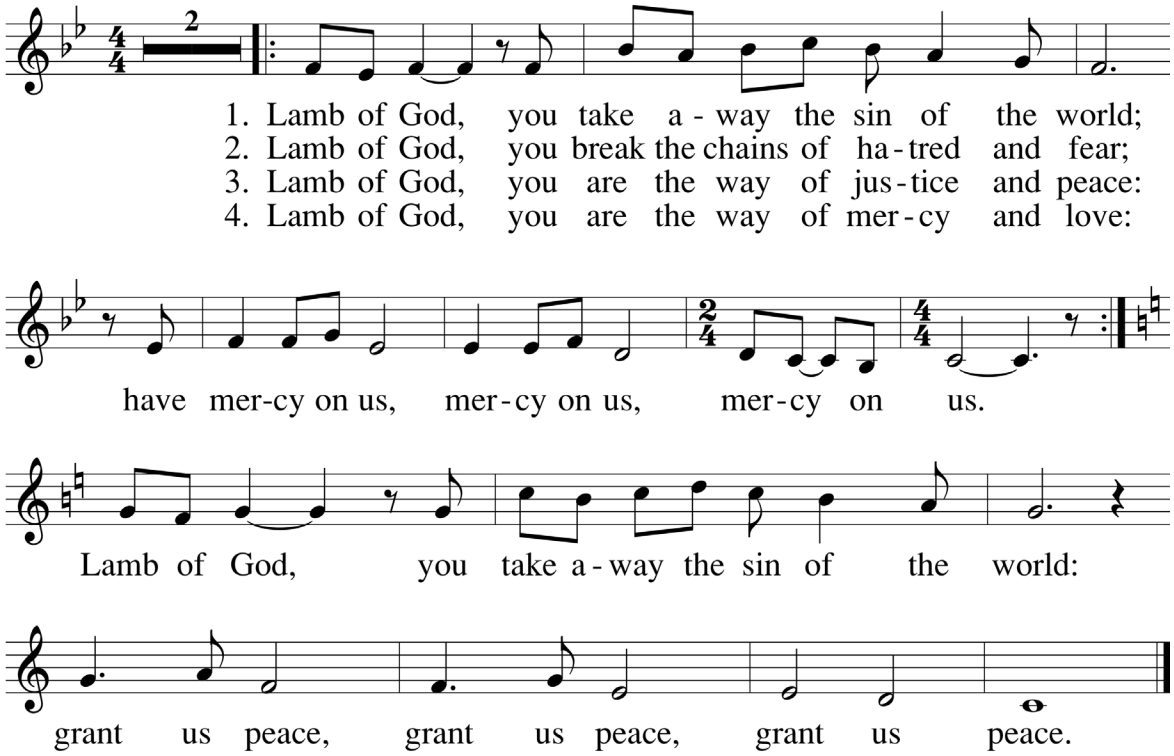

COMMUNION: This week communion will be served continuously from the common cup in the center aisle.

The Lord's Table is open to all wherever you are on your journey of faith. Ushers will guide you pew by pew up the center aisle. The entire organ side of the congregation will be served before the pulpit side.

Please fill out a communion card from the pew rack and give it to one of the ushers to help us keep track of attendance.There is white grape juice already poured into the cups before the altar; otherwise, please pick up an empty cup for wine. There are also gluten-free and regular wafers; please let the pastor know if you are gluten intolerant.

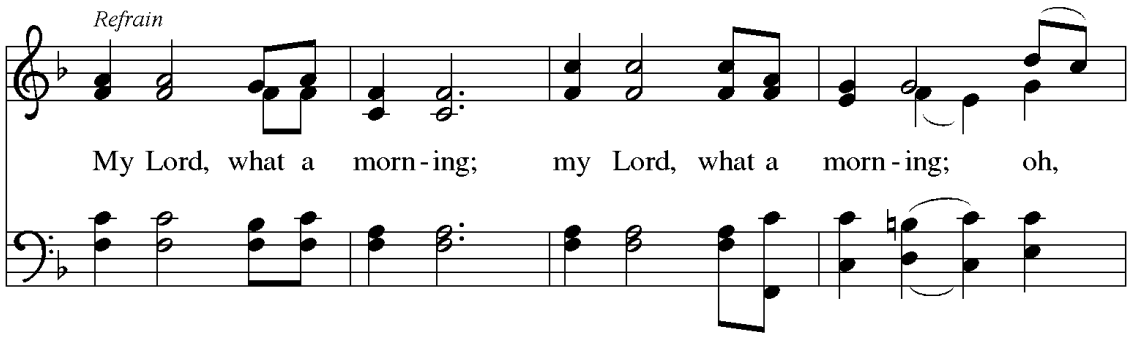

If you are not ready to receive the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to come forward and receive God's blessing. If you are unable to come forward, please let one of the ushers know so that communion can be brought to you. After receiving the bread and wine or blessing, it is customary to say "Amen."

COMMUNION SONG (Agnus Dei): Lamb of God

Please be seated.

you feed your flock like a shepherd and gather your people in your arms.
We praise you for the care and sustenance you give at this meal and always.
As we leave your table, carry us near your heart, and send us with confidence in the way of Jesus Christ, our Savior.
Amen.

BENEDICTION

November 24, 2026

Greetings, lambs of God—

In the spirit of counting my blessings this season and in great anticipation of our upcoming anniversary, I've collected 80 blessings of the Lutheran Church of Our Savior from 2026:

1 fantastic accompanist joined the team this year! Ben Trusnovec fits the church like a glove…

2 farms, HOG Farm and Mama Farm, shared donations, field trips, and grant support with us…

3 weddings took place in October alone, and one is already on the calendar for next October...

4 Strategic Goals emerged from a January visioning meeting. They will guide our next 5 years…

5 am wakes us up for Easter Dawn worship, where five churches proclaim Alleluia as one!…

6 regular Sunday School teachers teach our students how to follow Jesus every Sunday…

7 kids enjoyed holy communion and began to know the deep mystery of this sacrament…

8 worship leaders per week come together to lead our special services…

9 am every Thursday, food pantry workers arrive, but they're always early— they love to help!

10 am worship is the heart of the week. Busy services keep us wondering: should we add another?…

15 council members faithfully lead the church through collective decision making…

20 Tuesday crafters regularly fill the fellowship hall with lunch, laughter, and busy busy hands…

The 25th of December we worship in PJs & prove that Jesus appears in the most simple ways…

30 inches of snow covered the ground in February, and tested the mettle of our best shovelers…

40 cups fit the communion tray that altar guildists and lay assistants carefully fill and share…

50/50 means compromise, the daily love for one another that we practice in community life…

60 minute meetings are the norm for the scout and self-help groups who use our basement hall…

70 miles of travel to the bishop's retreat in CT are worth it to learn & pray with the whole church…

80 years have simply flown by since the church was founded in December 1946!

I could go on and on numbering the blessings of LCOS, and the year hasn't even ended yet. If you're also amazed by what God is doing here, consider making a special gift to celebrate and support our mission. Details follow on the next page for your consideration.

In my prayers this holiday season, I name each of you one by one and pray for God to bless and protect you and your families. I can't wait to see how what blessings we'll share in the year ahead, not to mention the next 80 years!

Peace be with you—

Pastor Claire Repsholdt

ADVANCED NOTICE: ONLINE GIVING SYSTEM TO CHANGE IN 2027**

After careful review of our systems, the financial team and church council have approved a switch in our online giving platform in 2027.

Why make the switch?

We currently pay for two separate platforms: Churchtrac, to manage and track our directory and donations; and Simply Giving to receive and cash donations. This switch will allow us to end our Simply Giving subscription in order to take advantage of the built in giving system that is part of Churchtrac. This will bring our online directory, financial tracking, giving, and calendar into one app. The great news is that it's simpler for the office, AND you will also be able to access one app for all of these tools as a regular congregation member!

What's the new giving system like?

Churchtrac has Stripe built in to collect donations. Stripe has become one of the standard non-profit industry online giving platforms. The Churchtrac/Stripe user portal will be easy, clear, and accessible for you to use. We hope that it will be even more simple for you to make and update donations there than it has been on Simply Giving.

What will be required of current online givers?

At the time of the congregational meeting in February, we will share clear information about closing Simply Giving accounts and signing up on the new giving platform for one-time or recurring donations. For a few weeks afterwards, we will have tech experts available at fellowship hour who can help guide you through the switch. We will not end our relationship with Simply Giving until we are sure that every giver has successfully transferred to Churchtrac.

What if I've never given online, will this affect me?

No, all of our in-person giving options remain the same. However, we highly recommend that you take the opportunity to explore whether giving a recurring donation online is right for you. Subscription-style giving is a great way to ensure the church is consistently supported, and our finance and stewardship teams would be happy to talk to you more about the benefits.

With severe weather events becoming more frequent and more extreme, it is more important than ever that New Yorkers are prepared for disasters. The NY Citizen Preparedness Training Program teaches residents to have the tools and resources to prepare for any type of disaster, respond accordingly and recover as quickly as possible to normal conditions. This training course will provide an introduction to responding to a natural or man-made disaster. Participants will be advised on how to properly prepare for any disaster, including developing a family emergency plan and stocking up on emergency supplies. Each family that attends will receive one preparedness kit.
